

I totally support satellite radio programming!
I cannot get local traffic information when I need it every day as I commute across the George Washington Bridge except on my XM Satellite receiver.

Do not abridge this or any other satellite services!